

Accredited Professional Declaration

It is an offence to give false or misleading information in relation to an application for registration of an Accredited Professional under section 217 of the Planning, Development and Infrastructure Act 2016. If it is found that you have misled the Accreditation Authority with any falsely-claimed qualification, experience or technical skills this could lead to the suspension and/or cancellation of your accreditation.

You must sign this declaration in front of your Authorised Witness. To change anything in your statutory declaration after your witness has signed it, you must make the changes in front of the same witness. You and your witness need to initial next to every change.

Fit and proper person declaration

Under Regulation 16 of the Planning, Development and Infrastructure (Accredited Professionals) Regulations 2019, an application for an Accredited Professional can be refused on certain grounds, including where the Accreditation Authority is not satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person. The following questions relate to this provision.

If you answer 'yes' to any of these questions, please attach a separate document (and upload with the Accredited Professional Declaration) providing details and reasons for why the Accreditation Authority should not refuse your application.
